Christmas Cottage - Sleeps 2 guests

Set in the heart of the quaint village of Bray-on-Thames, this 450 year old Grade II listed cottage has been sympathetically transformed into a homely and inviting, yet soft contemporary residence whilst retaining all the charm of its delightful, old English history and ambience.

From the moment you enter through the distinctive red door, you will feel the warmest welcome as you sink into the intimate atmosphere with its log fire, sleek furnishings and modern amenities such as plasma screen television and Bang & Olufsen music centre.

Located just steps away from the famed Fat Duck Restaurant and traditional Hind's Head Inn, the location is perfect for celebrating a special occasion, enjoying a culinary weekend or mid-week break.

The Poggenpohl kitchen, leading directly from the living room is well equipped and ideal for preparing a morning English breakfast at your leisure using the array of fresh, organic ingredients including speciality teas and coffees. Dine at the beautiful glass table enjoying the views out to the courtyard garden, with its delightful selection of plants and seasonal blooms.

A restful night

The master bedroom with its superb Missoni bed, luxurious linens and artwork creates a wonderful mood for your stay away from home. An en-suite "wet room" adds a more modern twist, complete with gorgeously soft towels and complimentary bath amenities.

Feel pampered and relaxed before your culinary evening and return to a heart-warming log fire and romantic turn-down service, complete with candles, soft music and roses.
