Lavender House - Sleeps up to 6 guests

Lavender House is a beautiful, private residence that is offered as a perfect retreat for gathering families and friends to enjoy peace, privacy and exclusivity in the culinary village of Bray-on-Thames.

Whilst much of the history of the house is shrouded in a little mystery, it is understood to have been evolved from three cottages dating back to the 18th century. The black and white frontage of this impressive terraced house stands proudly in the heart of the village and has benefited from an extensive renovation during 2012, resulting in a magnificent home, beautifully furnished with a contemporary feel, yet cosy and relaxing with just right blend of luxurious touches.

The theme of Lavender House allows a special feeling of "outdoor living", with its earthy tones, touches of lavender and muted shades of orange, combined with a total open view through the "concertina", ceiling to floor windows that open out to the magnificent landscaped gardens.

Summer living promises to be at its very best with a spacious patio, "Green Egg" barbeque and pizza oven. Dining is enjoyed overlooking the gardens, filled with lavender flowers.
