Family experiences

For a magical Christmas like no other gather up all the family, wrap up warm and head out to enjoy one of these very special Royal Borough experiences.

16 - 17 DECEMBER | ASCOT RACECOURSE

Howden Christmas Racing Weekend

In the countdown to Christmas, the Howden Christmas Racing Weekend showcases top-quality, high stakes Jumps racing on Friday 16 and Saturday 17 December.

Ascot's much-loved event is made extra-special this year as a traditional Nutcracker-themed Christmas is brought to life in the grounds of the historic racecourse with roaming toy soldiers, wish fairies and parlour games taking place on the Saturday, our dedicated family day. There will be an abundance of seasonal fun for racegoers of all ages, including candle-lit carol singing with the Ascot Brass band, fairground rides, face painting and the chance to see Father Christmas himself.

The competition is set to be thrilling, with a quality Jumps card featuring a pair of Grade 2 races on the Friday, both valuable prizes that often throw up notable performers on the road to the Cheltenham Festival. Saturday's racing will be headlined by the Grade 1 Howden Long Walk Hurdle, one of Britain's most prestigious long-distance hurdle races.

The weekend, jam-packed with exciting activities, is truly not one to be missed. Gather family and friends to celebrate the festive season in style and enjoy the most valuable meeting of Ascot's Jumps season, as the Christmas holidays begin in earnest.

Tickets from £20, Under 18s Go Free.

Fine Dining from £169 + VAT per person. Private Boxes available.

Christmas-themed activities on Saturday only.

Christmas at Windsor Castle

Celebrate Christmas at Windsor Castle and experience the magnificent State Apartments adorned with Christmas trees, twinkling lights, wreaths and garlands. The Semi-State Rooms, created as opulent private apartments for George IV and now used by members of the Royal Family for official entertaining, will also be open to visitors for the winter months. Visit in December to hear local school and community choirs singing carols beneath the Christmas tree, take your pick from the festive menu in the Undercroft Café, and browse for Christmas gifts in the Castle's shops, where luxurious hampers, traditional decorations and sustainable stocking fillers all make for perfect presents.

On Saturday 3 December, visit as a family and step back in time to a Victorian Christmas. Learn about how Christmas was celebrated during Queen Victoria's reign, dress up as an elegant Victorian, devise your own royal Christmas menu, and design a tree decoration, wreath or angel just as a Victorian child would have done. Christmas at Windsor Castle and all family activities are included with admission to the Castle.

THE GREAT Outdoors

Great for mind, body and spirit, no matter the weather. The Royal Borough features some beautiful countryside with more than 1,000 acres of National Trust land in the north and 4,800 acres of Crown Estate, not to mention the River Thames running through the heart of the region.

Even in winter it's good to enjoy time outdoors so here are some suggestions for walking, cycling, riding and a thoroughly good day out in the Windsor, Maidenhead and Ascot area.

Windsor Great Park

Windsor Great Park is the only Royal Park managed by the Crown Estate. While the trees are bare, the iconic tree-lined avenue from the Copper Horse statue to Windsor Castle opens up with wide-ranging views. The frosted monuments of the Prince Consort Statue, Cumberland Obelisk and Jubilee Statue also make for some atmospheric sights on a fresh winter walk.

Virginia Water

The woodland shores of the lake are an enticing experience as the areas of dappled sunlight through the winter trees draw you in. With features steeped in history, like the ornamental Cascade waterfall, and the abundance of wildlife that call the lake home, there is much to see and discover. Round off your walk with a hearty meal in the Virginia Water Pavilion Café* and stop by the Virginia Water Gift Shop* to explore the winter range of products or pick up a gift membership for someone special this Christmas. *Closed Christmas Eve and Christmas Day.

Maidenhead

The river at Maidenhead is one of the many attractions of the town and wider area. A walk along the riverside offers amazing views of the Thames and great walks towards the villages of Cookham, Marlow and Bray. Explore the river's towpaths and walkways on foot or take to the water on a passenger cruiser.

National Trust Cliveden

At National Trust Cliveden, the formal gardens of the estate soon give way to secluded glades, tree-lined avenues and picturesque riverside with miles of woodland walks to discover.

Windsor and Maidenhead parks and open spaces

The Royal Borough of Windsor and Maidenhead is full of pockets of green space – parks and open areas in a range of different sizes but all perfect for a spot of relaxation or a bit of exercise. Many have features such as picnic facilities, play equipment, statues, fountains and water features. Others have a fascinating history, for example Baths Island in Windsor was the site of the town's swimming baths back in the 19th century. You'll find areas that are a haven for flora and fauna.

The River Thames

There is something particularly appealing about the River Thames on the stretch from Hurley to Runnymede as it is perhaps the most historic, offering easy strolls along the Thames Path and the chance to visit many attractions. Visit Windsor has more information and inspiration for a fabulous day out in nature.

More details »

Winter in The Savill Garden

There is much to see and discover in The Savill Garden during winter. Colour is in abundance from the stems, fruit and evergreen leaves of the winter beds, and in particular, the colourful stems of the dogwood and willows command attention. The bark of the cherry, maple and birch trees are also features to look out for.

There is subtlety and atmosphere in a winter visit to The Savill Garden. Bare stately tree trunks open up new vistas to soak in, offset by the hazy light of the low winter sun. The Savill Garden is open daily, excluding 24 and 25 December. More details »

Christmas parking

Shop local and enjoy resident parking discounts in the run-up to Christmas!

Don't forget to make the most of the resident parking discount scheme, offering one hour's free parking in six popular car parks

Unlike current RingGo zones the resident parking discount zones will not operate on a start/stop basis but will be buy time. You will have to decide how long you are going to stay at the time of parking and pay the appropriate amount. Remember with buy time you can extend your stay at any time during your live parking session. There is no pre-authorisation required.

You will first need to set up an online account with the RingGo cashless parking system. There is then a simple application process for your virtual permits to get the discounts in the car parks you wish to use. As the scheme is based on a virtual permit system, it is necessary to apply for each car parking zone you wish for the discount to be applied in.

The application only needs to be submitted once and will last for up to two years.
