Theatre Royal Windsor

Nestled in the shadows of Windsor Castle, the Theatre Royal Windsor is part of Bill Kenwright Ltd and the launchpad for many of the company's UK tours. It is also fast gaining a reputation as a producing theatre. The wide and varied programme includes one-nighters, family-friendly shows, musicals, touring productions, and new works.

As a flavour of what is on offer this spring and summer, the Easter holidays kick-start with Science Museum Live (9 April), Fireman Sam Live! (10 April) and The Dinosaur that Pooped (11 April). Creatives in Residence, Catherine O'Reilly & Tim Churchill's exciting new thriller Doubting Thomas premieres in June (dates tbc). Then in August, Roald Dahl's family friendly musical The Enormous Crocodile opens in Windsor (8-10 August), before transferring to London.

Racing at Ascot Racecourse

Over the years the patronage of thirteen monarchs has helped make Ascot one of the world's best-loved racecourses and it remains a pillar of British sporting and social culture. Covering 179 acres, the racecourse welcomes over 630,000 guests each year and is the home of some of the sport's most prestigious race meetings ensuring that Ascot's stature, reputation and famed celebration of occasion is admired the world over.

Alongside Royal Ascot, the racecourse's famous five-day meeting, Ascot hosts an additional 21 racedays – including family days – throughout the year, each with its own unique character offering the perfect day out and the opportunity to celebrate any occasion.

Spring Family Race Day, 30 March 2025: See the Jumps season out in style at Ascot's Spring Family Raceday - our springtime extravaganza, where racing favourites meet family favourites.

Royal Ascot Trials Day, 30 April 2025: Quality is the order of the day at Royal Ascot Trials Day. The seven-race card showcases top-class competition, featuring four trials meticulously designed for contenders eyeing success at Royal Ascot.

Peroni Nastro Azzurro 0.0% May Racing Weekend at Ascot Racecourse, 9-10 May 2025: Gather with friends and family as you immerse yourself in action-packed entertainment and dine-out on delicious delicacies. Peroni Nastro Azzurro Racing 0.0% Weekend is your last opportunity to see equine stars in action before Royal Ascot. Don't miss it.

Royal Ascot, 17-21 June 2025: Royal Ascot is one of the pinnacle events of the summer social season and is certainly a must-attend event of the year and a quintessentially British day out.

Summer Mile Weekend, 11-12 July 2025: The Summer Mile Racing Weekend presents two days of thrilling midsummer Flat action. The racecourse is in full bloom and its grounds are alive with atmosphere as racegoers enjoy the exciting action on the track and a relaxing afternoon of summer socialising. It's the perfect opportunity to pack a picnic and kick off your summer in style with friends and family.

King George VI Weekend, 25-26 July 2025: With the exception of Royal Ascot, King George weekend is the most important, historic and glamorous racing meeting on Ascot's calendar. With the racecourse in full bloom, the first day of the QIPCO King George Diamond Weekend offers a relaxed afternoon of racing where racegoers can wander across the racecourse's luscious lawns and sample the many Champagne and cocktail bars on offer under the glorious English sunshine.

Dubai Duty Free Shergar Cup, 9 August 2025: The Dubai Duty Free Shergar Cup is a raceday like no other. A celebration of all things extraordinary, this exquisite event brings together exceptional talent from all over the world to compete on the racetrack and entertain at the post-racing concert!

Stanley Spencer Gallery Summer Exhibition:

That Marvellous Atmosphere | Stanley Spencer and the Cookham Regatta

In the picturesque village of Cookham you'll find an intimate gallery dedicated to the art of Stanley Spencer. Spencer was born in Cookham and is buried in the churchyard. His artistic journey is very much intertwined with this pretty Thames-side town.

The Gallery's summer exhibition will take a deep dive into Stanley Spencer's last, great imaginative painting, Christ Preaching at Cookham Regatta. This enormous and ambitious painting was his main focus for the last 10 years of his life. In characteristic fashion, Spencer turned his childhood memories of the golden era Cookham Regatta into an event of great spiritual significance. Spencer explained, 'Everything to do with love is meant in this Regatta scene. In that marvellous atmosphere nothing can go wrong.'
